Malcolm Logistics have now launched our Secondary Distribution Service, operating from our Newhouse distribution centre, which covers 450,000 sq ft of warehousing space and 150,000 sq ft of modern bonded warehousing. This operation services many 'blue-chip' customers nationwide. On arrival at our distribution centre, pallets are processed through our Warehouse Management System (WMS) and are picked for the customer on an as required basis.

The WMS operates on a 'FIFO' basis (First In – First Out), with the oldest stock being distributed first. Our experienced forklift drivers then load the pallets onto our specialist vans for final delivery. Traffic planners organise the distribution of goods to economise loads and utilise pallet space.

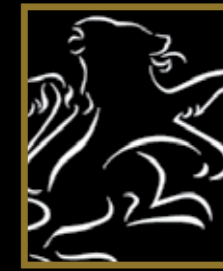

IT support is fundamental to assisting operations and Malcolm Logistics has proven integration with systems and major ERP solutions, which allows for the most up-to-date stock availability. This is supplemented by end-to-end barcode scanning and real time track and trace resulting in greater control over all of our customers stock.
